"I COME"

A young preacher was giving his first sermon and was quite scared. He stood at the pulpit and said, "I come", and again he forgot his words. His memory went blank. He went back and sat down.

Finally remembering his sermon he walked back to the pulpit and said "I come", and again he forgot his words. He returned to his seat and thought for a while. Determined to give his sermon he rushed toward the pulpit and said, "I come". As he said this he fell over the pulpit and landed on a lady's lap. Blushing he said, "Oh ma'm forgive me. I didn't mean to do that."

"Oh that's all right young man. You warned me three times you were coming".

WEST JUNIOR HI-Y

The West Junior Hi-Y has been under the leadership of Mrs. Katherine Williams this school term.

The weekly meetings were held every Wednesday at the American Legion. During the past month the meeting place was moved to West School for greater convenience.

In addition to worthwhile meetings and financial contributions to the Polio drive and the Y. Building Fund the boys have found time for other incidentals. Last February a skating party was held. Before the school term closes there'll be a 'hayride and wienner roast' at the Bushee home on Camp Ground Road.

Officers of the club: President, Ronald Gardner; Vice-President, William Grof; Secretary, Roger Powers; Treasurer, Gary Krebs.

HOLLYWOOD HIGHLIGHTS

A rumor is making the rounds that Gary Krebs and Sandra Tobin, co-stars in the moving picture, "It Came from Outer Mongolia", were married last week, in all places, Siberia. If this is true, it will be Gary's fifth marriage, and Sandra's thirteenth. If this isn't true, PLEASE don't sue this paper.

Joe Canfield, the "King" of the hot rod racers, and his fiancée, Nancy Tracy, are racing in a meet at Indian Apple Puss Race Track, May 13, 1955.

James Bowland told me that Dorothy Lockard, the internationally famous seal trainer, is coming to town with her seals, Bill Bolsen and Mary Ann Sanders.

The new Broadway hit, "The Sheriff's Son-in-Law", starring Hopalong Harold (Altman), is very good I hear.

Also the Movie, "Stampede on Forty-Sixth Street", starring track star, Phyllis Starner, is a movie going must.

At one of Helen Azbell's Hollywood parties, the game, "What's My Crime", was enjoyed by many guests. The moderator - Dennis Sprague, guest panelists, Pat Romine, Lois Freese, and Bill Graf. Guest stars - (courtesy of Sing Sing) "Baby Face" Nick Reed, "Slasher" Helen Isaacs, "Gunmoll" - Arbutus Van Scoy, and "Prettyboy" Richard Swisher.

Bill Lohnes' Can-Can Dancers, Sandra Raver and Betty Eck are doing fine at Marcine Romine's night club, "The Fishnet".

Cliff Brode is getting very popular among the women folk in his audiences on his new T. V. Show, "The Correct Posture for Sitting Up Exercises."

Fred Noland received an Academy Award for his magnificent performance in his last picture of the year, "The Many Monster from Mars".

Lou Awalt, weight lifting champ of the U. S., just finished a picture called, "I Was an African Head Hunter".

Kay Kindler

DO YOU REMEMBER?

1. Helen Azbell's black eye?
2. Cliff Brode standing in the corner in Mrs. Veid't Room?
3. The time Mr. McCollister asked Helen Azbell a question on History and she didn't give an answer, and he said, "That's right Helen."
4. Jimmy Bowland always singing so loud in music class.
5. The time Mr. McCollister asked Lois Jean Freese when the Civil War started and when it ended. "Started in 1855 ended in 1954".
6. Kay Kindler known as Bones.
7. Lou Awalt and her personality.
8. Fred Noland watering artificial flowers.

OUR FLAG

High above the school it waves
The red, the white, the blue,
The forty eight stars on a field of blue.
The seven red and six white stripes,
All make the red, the white, the blue.
Jean Moore—4

OUR KITTEN

I have a little kitten,
I like to play with it
If I don't hurt it
It won't run away.
Jacqueline Pickering—4

CLOUDS

I look up into the big blue sky
And see the clouds floating slowly by,
Sometimes when I raise my head and Often the clouds get sad and cry look,
I see pictures as in a book,
Which makes the rain fall from the sky.
The clouds are really a beautiful sight,
And just think; God made them over night.
Lucretia Aurand—7A

DO YOU REMEMBER IN 8B:

When Mr. Hague was principal of West School?
When Mrs. McClurg was our music teacher?
When we looked out the window this year and the snow was caught in a current and was going straight up?
When we tied our umbrellas together to make a roof for our papers in Miss Martin's Room when it rained on our Paper Drive Day?
When we had a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Poling?
When our cheerleaders bravely paraded down on the basketball court and forgot their cheer?
Just before Christmas, when 8B morning session was studying stars and the stars and planets were still shining when we came to school before daylight?
When Charles Delong and Gary Bailes took unexpected pictures with their tiny candid cameras?

WHEN I WAS A LITTLE GIRL

When I was a little girl just so high
My Mommy took a little stick and made me cry;
But now I'm a big girl and Mommy can't do it
But Daddy takes a big stick and hops right to it.
Sandra Kay Wildermuth—2
Mrs. Wilson
I live in the country. When I play outside I see many kinds of birds. I watch them make their nests. When the little birds are hatched out I watch the father and mother bird feed the little birds. Soon they are big birds and will fly away.

CLASS WILL	FACTS ABOUT 8 C	(MR. McCOLLISTER)
We, the Eighth Grade Class of West School, County of Fairfield, City of Lancaster, and State of Ohio, being of sound mind, good health, and about to pass out of the above named school after eight strenuous years of hard labor and good clean fun, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament; hereby revoking and making void all former wills at any-time heretofore made. To our highly respected principal Mr. Dwight L. Kane, and our much loved teachers, to whom we are deeply indebted for their constant guidance of our education through grade school, we bequeath our heartiest gratitude and a wealth of memories. It shall be theirs to watch our upward course, and accept a measure of satisfaction out of their long and many hours of very careful instruction. We, as a class, give to the Seventh Grade Class the right to our conceit and self-satisfaction, and the right to question any teacher's ability, knowledge or grading standards—although such is not advisable. We do hereby make the following bequests: Sharon Murray, Nancy Tracy, Helen Azbell - their cheerleading ability to three capable Seventh Grade Girls. Joyce Thomas - Her ability to skate to anyone who can stay on his feet. Don Hilliard - His height to a short boy in the Seventh Grade. Joyce Ruff - Her ability to keep friends to Fyenne Edwards. Elaine Adams - Her good behavior to Joan Wright. Paul Hoffman - His ability to go to classes without having prepared his lessons to anyone who thinks he can get away with it. Roger Powers - His ability to tie up the telephone lines to Larry Fast. Gail Horcher - Her love for the Rollerens to the Seventh Grade skating fans. Mike Campbell - His basketball ability to Bill Frasch. Gary Bailes - His ability to get along with the Eighth Grade girls to anyone who needs it. Elaine Nutter, Ellen Hinton - Their good nature to anyone needing it. Bobby Graham - His good grades to Bob Rosier. To the janitors of West School, we bequeath all the miscellaneous articles that we have left in desks and lockers. To them we also leave our eternal gratitude in keeping our building clean and attractive, for their friendly cooperation in all projects, and for the numerous acts of kindness they so generously bestowed upon us. To this school, we do in this last will and testament, hereby bequeath the amount of ten thousand memories, a lasting memorial of this Eighth Grade Class of 1955. Signed this 7th day of March, 1955, Signed: Eighth Grade Class of 1955 By: Nancy Hedeges Signed, sealed, published, and de-	Name James Butts Phyllis Lucas Joyce Thomas Janet Cordle Kathleen Wilcox Donna Flint Alice Bope Darlene Friend Barbara Barker Nancy Binder Larry Simonton Donald Moore Charlie Evans Bill Mann James Jadwin Bill Leach Ronald Botts Loretta Nelson Deloris Barnett Billie Stiverson Marlene Weaver Margaret Edgington Larry Miller Kenneth Bodamer Lewis Kemper Carl Webb Name Carl Webb Lewis Kemper Kenneth Bodamer Larry Miller Margaret Edgington Billie Stiverson Deloris Barnett Loretta Nelson Ronald Botts Bill Leach James Jadwin Bill Mann Charlie Evans Larry Simonton Nancy Binder Barbara Barker Darlene Friend Alice Bope Donna Flint Kathleen Wilcox Janet Cordle Joyce Thomas Phyllis Lucas James Butts Marlene Weaver Donald Moore clared by the Eighth Grade Class, as and for their last will and testament, and in the presence of us, who, at their request, and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed their names as attesting witnesses to said instrument. Witnesses: Nancy Severing Eugene Bushee BALLOON Balloon, balloon, balloon, Up in the air, air, air, Tell me what you do up there. The Y-Teen gave a Valentine Party for the students of Mrs. Trout's room. The Y-Teen members presented a program for the group which included Joyce Ruff, Fyenne Edwards, and Sharon Murray playing the piano. Clarinet solo by Ellen Hinton and a flute solo by Sharon Dittoe.

After the program the group went to the cafeteria where refreshments were served.

The 19 girls and boys of Mrs. Trout's room received leather change purses and valentines. After refreshments the group returned to Mrs. Trout's room where the party came to an end with songs and a few games.

There were 67 members and guests attending the party including Mrs. Trout and Mrs. Burnham.

MY DAD

Although he walks on the shores of Germany,
 He really lives within the heart of me.
 He tells me of his dog named Mike;
 Says they go on many a hike.

He writes me letters, quite a few.
 Says someday soon I'll be home with you.
 For he's in the army you see;
 He helps to protect you and me.

Tells me the weather is not so hot,
 Don't think you'd like it, Probably not!

Of course he has more to say to me;
 But that's just for us sorta' privately.

If someone you love is far away from you,

Keep your chin up, Don't be blue.
 Pray to God, day by day,
 Your faith, I'm sure will keep you gay.
 Sandy Atkin—7C

A SALUTE TO WEST SCHOOL

We are very sorry to leave
 But we have a higher goal
 Stretched out before us
 (Like a shoe with a sole).

We have helped her win victories
 Which she may have lost
 Without our good rosters
 And a very good boss.

Green and white are her colors
 Which we all think is grand
 But next year it's purple and gold
 Under which colors we'll stand.

We'll always stand at attention
 When we hear her name so grand
 For on the top of our list
 She'll always have her stand.

With this little salute
 We leave with a grin
 But we hope she has
 Many a victory to win.

Alice Bope—8C

MY TEDDY BEAR

Once I had a wee wee teddy bear.
 My bear was pink and white. I got it for Easter. I lost it in a show. I hunted all over for it. I ask all the people in the show, but no one found it. I never saw it again. I miss my teddy bear.

Lois Jean Bay—Grade 2—Room 103

MY DOG

I have a dog and his name is Sparky.
 Some boy gave me my dog. I like him.
 Now he can do tricks and jump over a rope. He looks like Rin-Tin-Tin. He is part police dog and part collie. Some times he knocks me down. One day
 I gave him a bone and he buried it.
 He thinks I don't know where he hid
 it. But I do. We are friends.

In our geography class we have studied about the conservation of our Natural Resources: soil, water, minerals, forest, and wild life. Before school is out, we want to take a bus trip to see the two dams that have been built in Hunter's Run to prevent floods. On the way we will look for farms where farmers have tried to prevent soil erosion.

On April first we saw a conservation film "Clouds Over Ohio". It showed us how important water is.

SNEAKY

Once upon a time there was a little snail. He lived under a rotten log. His name was Sneaky. Do you know why his mother called him Sneaky? Because he always sneaks. He had fun playing with his brothers and sisters all day long. When night came he washed his hands and face then he said his prayers but first he said good-night to his brothers and sisters. Then he went to sleep.

HISTORY OF LANCASTER

Pioneer Ebenezer Zane opened the first "road" through this part of Ohio in the year 1797. He cut down underbrush and blazed trees along the 266 mile "trace" so that it could be followed on horse from Wheeling, West Virginia, to Maysville, Kentucky.

Congress gave Zane three military tracts in payment. He was allowed to choose any land along "Zane's Trace." One of the sites he selected was on the Hock-Hocking River, marked by a huge rock formation called Standing Stone by the Indians. That site is now Lancaster—and Standing Stone is known as Mount Pleasant.

In 1799 a log grist-mill was built at the falls of Hock-Hocking, about six miles northeast of Lancaster. An ancient mill, known as Rock Mill, still stands at this site. That same year, a mail route was established over "Zane's Trace". Mail was carried on horseback. The route was ridden one way each week, with the first post office at Lancaster.

To the north of Standing Stone lay wonderful country for farms. The south held beautiful hills and wonderful rock formations. It was a country certain to attract settlers. So Ebenezer Zane's sons, Noah and John, laid out the village. A sale of lots was held on November 10, 1800, and the building of log huts began immediately. Zane donated the ground which is now the City square, and the new village was named New Lancaster, in honor of pioneers from Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

More settlers swelled New Lancaster's population. In 1805, by act of legislature, the name was shortened to Lancaster, and in 1831 it was incorporated.

OUR P. M. TEACHERS

Mr. McCollister
With some of us, Mr. McCollister is very strict
But with the rest of us he really makes a hit.
He's a very good teacher and a very nice man,
He's always ready to help us if he can.
Mrs. Williams
Mrs. Williams straight and tall,
She is the smartest of us all.
We think she's wonderful and really grand,
And always ready to give us a helping hand.
Miss Hansel
Miss Hansel can spell, Miss Hansel can write,
And when it comes to art, she really does alright.
She is our Home Arts teacher and can't be beat,
She gives us lectures on being neat.
Mrs. Veidt
Mrs. Veidt sometimes makes us study all night,
But if we get A. We think she's alright.
For many reasons I think I'll say,
I like her better every day.
Mr. Kane
Mr. Kane, our principal stands state-ly and fine,
He is respected, no better can we find.
In long years after, his words we'll recall,
Those inspiring speeches made to all.

What is it that Gary Bailes?
And where does Charles DeLong?
And who is Ronnie's Gardner?
It really sounds quite wrong.
Where is Donnie's Hill yard?
And David's Whit aker?
And is Joyce's Ruff really leaking?
My sakes; we must help her!
What is Nancy Severing?
Where is Mike's Campbell?
Is George's Lamb named Bert?
It's really hard to tell.
Is Elaine really a Nutter?
Is Bobby a real Gray ham?
Does Roger have some magic Powers?
Please tell us if you can.

EIGHTH GRADE HOME ARTS

Early in the fall the 8th grade girls started working on ceramics. We made many different creations including ash trays, dishes jewelry and figurines. Later on we made skirts to wear to the fall Y-teen square dance. Around Christmas time we were making booklets on food nutrition and after Christmas we started on good grooming. At Carnival time many of the girls made posters to be placed in store windows about the community. In March the girls made skirts, blouses, jumpers and dresses to wear in the Style Show for the Room Mothers Club.

THE CHEER LEADERS

The cheer leaders chosen for 1954-55 were Helen Azbell, Nancy Tracy, Sharon Murray and Betty Eck.
We attended some of the out-of-town games at Mt. Logan, Chillicothe, Circleville. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have been helpful in taking us.
There were cheer leaders chosen from each school with teachers acting as sponsors.
Purple and gold were the Junior High colors. Miss Hansel was the West School sponsor.
This spring we had our pictures taken at Tobias' and were entertained by Miss Poor (East), Miss Barrow (South) and Miss Hansel (West) at a party at the Mumaugh Memorial.
We enjoyed being this year's cheer leaders and wish to thank Mr. Kane again for permitting us to attend so many out of town games.

AN "AN-T-Q" OF 1970

Dear Joyce:

I am so glad to see you are doing so well with your interior decorating career. I read in the New York Gazette that you are working on Governor Clayton Benne's home now. I think you might be interested in knowing the staff of this famous paper. Cliff Brode is chief editor, Charles Milliser is the photographer, Mike Truog gives advice to the lovelorn and Gary Krebs is the cartoonist.

There was a little excitement in the apartment below me. The famous actress Mary Ann Sanders had her valuable jewels stolen, but Sergeants Charles Delong (alias Friday) and Gary Starnier cracked the case. Those were the facts ma'am!

Have you heard about little Bob Graham? He is now big six foot three Bob Graham and is coach of the Ohio State Basketball team. Gary Bailes won the United States Roller Skating Championship and is in the Olympics. Marlene Weaver has taken over Norman Rockwell's job of painting pictures for the cover of Saturday Evening Post. Mike Campbell is a news commentator on the new colored, three dimensional television program, "Looking with Campbell." Eugene Bushee is the wealthiest farmer in Ohio. Elaine Adams is the lady mayor of New York City and her cabinet is as follows: Phyllis Starnier, Treasurer and Sandy Tobin, Secretary. Jim Jadwin is the manager of Cordie's Department Store.

Nancy Hedges is teaching men drivers to park and Gail Horcher is teaching them how to duck when they go through the side of the garage. Linda Reynolds is now a big star in Hollywood and Elaine Nutter does her hair. Ronald Gardner is her director and Nancy Binder is helping him.

Nancy Tracy has fulfilled her lifelong wish and has married a multimillionaire and is living in the wide open spaces. Joyce Thomas has a skating rink and lets all of us in free. Gladys Sturms does the Mambo in the new hit show "Kokomo Joe". Kay Kindler and Ellen Hinton show movies on the late, late, late, show. Helen Azbell is house mother in a girls' dormitory.

Your Friend

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Can you imagine what the eighth graders of today did eight years ago before they started to school? Well, let me give you some idea.

First I'll begin with myself - I was bashful and hung on to mother's apron strings at least until the neighbor came over to play. Nellalou Await however made friends out of her cow and chickens. Joe Camled was more than likely the Strongman of the house. As for Phyllis Starnier, her hobby was eating. Cliff Brode had a set of guns and a hobby horse and loved to play a cowboy hero. Dorothy Lockard liked to help with the work, but only made a bigger mess for her mother to clean up. Fred Noland made what he called airplanes out of clothes pins. Richard Swisher liked all the little neighbor girls and played with them all the time. Elaine Adams, with her long pigtails, had a red wagon and really enjoyed it. Betty Eck was the bashful type then and played in her sand box all alone. Helen Azbell, however, was not bashful and loved to play football with her neighbors. Lois Freese, with her curly locks of hair, attracted all the neighborhood boys. James Bowland was so fat he couldn't play or run. He just waddled, Sharon

Murray had music in her fingers, and nearly drove her mother crazy on a play piano. Nancy Hedges, also a shy one, loved her tricycle. Eugene Bushee could count to a hundred at four. Kay Kindler being a little tot then played with her Annie rag doll. Gary Krebs would go up the sidewalk on his scooter and come back down crying and also without his scooter. Joyce Thomas liked to take a stroll once in a while with her baby buggy. Nancy Tracy loved to go barefoot. Sandy Raver loved to wade in mud puddles.
